

Quixy Leads SoftwareSuggest's BPM Leaders Matrix with Top Scores in Satisfaction and Usability

HYDERABAD, TELANGANA, INDIA, July 24, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ --

SoftwareSuggest, the leading software recommendation and review platform, has released its highly anticipated Leaders Matrix for Business Process Management (BPM) Software. The comprehensive report assesses various BPM solutions, focusing on crucial factors such as features, customer support, integration capabilities, user-friendliness, and social media engagement, among others. The goal is to provide users with valuable insights to make informed decisions and select the best product to meet their specific business needs.

Among the top contenders, Quixy Leads SoftwareSuggest's BPM Leaders Matrix with Top Scores in Satisfaction and Usability categories.

Satisfaction Score

Quixy's remarkable Satisfaction Score of 10 reflects the overwhelming positive feedback from its satisfied user base. With an impressive 7.5 rating for the number of reviews and score freshness, it is evident that Quixy's commitment to delivering consistent value and continuous improvement is resonating with its customers. The software's robust social media engagement and significant website visitor count further demonstrate its growing popularity and influence in the BPM market.

Usability Score

Quixy's excellence extends to its Usability Score as well. With an outstanding 9.7 rating for Ease of Setup, users can quickly get up and running with the platform. Its user-friendly interface and remarkable ease of use (9.4) make it accessible to users of all levels of technical expertise. The software's rich set of features (9.4) empowers organizations to efficiently manage their business processes. Additionally, Quixy's top-notch customer support (9.9) and exceptional value for money (9.5) further solidify its position as a leading BPM solution.

“We are thrilled to receive such recognition from SoftwareSuggest’s BPM Leaders Matrix,” said Vivek Goel, [VP Marketing] at Quixy. “Our team is dedicated to providing our customers with a powerful and user-friendly BPM platform that helps them achieve their business objectives efficiently. These scores are a testament to our commitment to customer satisfaction and continuous innovation.”
