DALLAS, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, July 26, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The Medlin Law Firm, an award-winning firm in Texas, recently threw a birthday party for one of its criminal defense attorneys. Last June 30, the team and staff at the law firm celebrated EJ Odre's birthday at the office. This isn't the first time the firm has thrown parties for their team members.

EJ is a valuable asset to The Medlin Law Firm. His experience as a prosecutor has given him insight into tactics used to build cases in court. As a dedicated criminal lawyer, he fights for clients' rights to get the most favorable outcome in court.

Before becoming an attorney, EJ served in the United States Marine Corps. It was there that he learned discipline, dedication, and determination. All these values, he applied to his legal career and to the law firm itself.

EJ's affiliation with the State Bar of Texas as a criminal defense lawyer allowed him to practice his craft fully. He has since provided various individuals with criminal defense and served them in many different cases. With EJ's knowledge and experience, he has positively impacted the firm by providing many clients with excellent representation in court, no matter the charges they may be facing.

The Medlin Law Firm is a high-ranking criminal defense firm in Dallas, Texas. With their 102 years of combined experience in criminal law, they continue to service clients and protect their rights in various legal situations.

The criminal defense attorneys at The Medlin Law Firm develop strategies and solutions against different criminal charges. They innovate on the tactics they use to assist clients in achieving the most favorable outcome in court.

The firm defends individuals against various criminal accusations. These include DWI, fraud, assault, gun crimes, and domestic violence. They also handle cases such as failure to appear, expunction, and airport crimes.
