

Rachel Lazarou and Robert Brooks Named as 2023 National Creative Haircutter Finalists alongside Industry Luminaries

CARDIFF, WALES, July 26, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- We are delighted to announce that Rachel Lazarou and Robert Brooks have been nominated as finalists in the 2023 National Creative Haircutter category, a distinguished honour within the renowned Global Creative Awards. Their nomination places them in the esteemed company of industry luminaries, including Stevan Dulay (POMOhair), Jacob Scully (Scully Scully), and Ben Brazzo (Jack & the Wolfe).

The Global Creative Awards is an internationally acclaimed competition that celebrates the most innovative and talented stylists within the creative hair industry. This esteemed event showcases the artistic excellence of hair stylists from around the world. The Global Creative Awards span across various categories, including new talent colourist of the year, creative colourist of the year, creative haircutter of the year, men's hairstylist of the year, avant garde stylist of the year, salon team of the year as well as editorial colourist of the year.

Participants in the Global Creative Awards undergo a rigorous selection process, and the judging panel comprises some of the most influential figures in the hair industry. The competition is not only a platform to recognise and celebrate outstanding talent but also an opportunity for participants to learn from their peers, exchange ideas, and elevate the art of hair cutting and styling.

The announcement of the bronze, silver, and gold finalists is scheduled to take place on Friday,
