Ecommerce. "The redesigned responsive site loads faster and offers improved search, product pages and checkout to get customers what they need quickly."

Founded in 2005, AcuAtlanta emerged from its sister business, Acupuncture Atlanta clinic. AcuAtlanta began as an online store catering to the clinic's patients, offering Chinese herbs, supplements and natural products recommended by practitioners.

Now in its 18th year of business, AcuAtlanta has expanded into a leading online retailer shipping products nationwide and internationally. The company provides over 150 major brands focused on traditional Chinese medicine along with supplements, functional foods, sports nutrition, beauty, personal care and pet products.

"We're proud of our deep roots providing proven professional grade supplements and herbs to help customers on their path back to health and support healthy lifestyles," Wise said.

The redesigned website was built on the BigCommerce platform and developed in partnership with web design firm EYStudios. Key upgrades include:

Faster load times, improving shopping experience across devices.
Refined navigation and search to easily find products.
Enhanced product pages with expanded info.
Simplified checkout process.
Real-time shipping updates via AfterShip.

Coming soon, the site will add digital wallet payment options, subscription deliveries, and a customer loyalty program. AcuAtlanta also provides a free 15-minute consultation with seasoned staff.

"The new website makes the AcuAtlanta advantage more accessible through improved technology and service," Wise said. "We look forward to continued growth as we help more people pursue natural solutions."
