

Charming Puzzler Side Decide Will Relax and Challenge Nintendo Switch Owners

Australian game studio Blue Volcano is proud to announce that the relaxing puzzle game Side Decide is now available on Nintendo Switch.

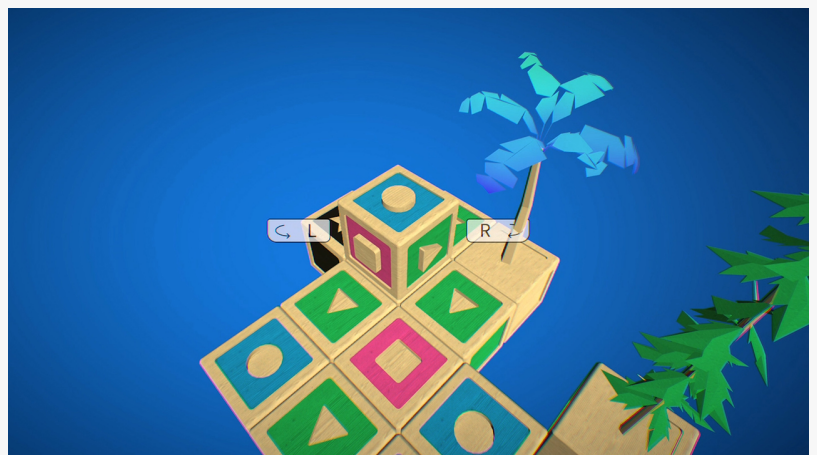

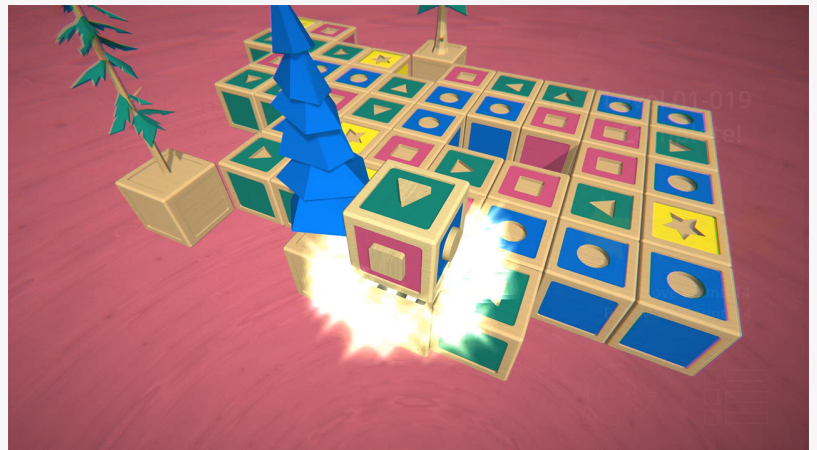

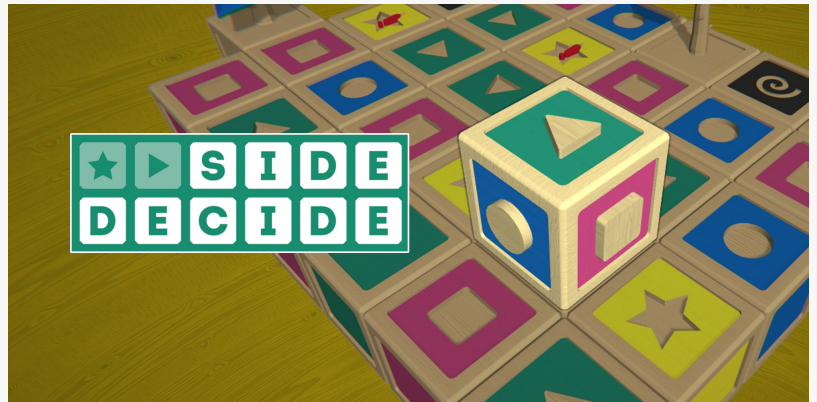

SYDNEY, NSW, AUSTRALIA, July 31, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Side Decide is a relaxing puzzle game that harkens back to the wooden blocks of childhood. The objective is to roll a wooden cube to the end of the level. Each side of the cube features a different kind of shape and you can only roll onto a block with the corresponding shape and alignment. Rolling onto a circle allows you to rotate your cube, opening up branching pathways to help you achieve your goal. Teleporting, wildcards, and falling blocks all add challenge to the mix. This is a game for everyone, providing a relaxing mood and setting, easy enough for anyone to pick up but challenging enough for completionists as well.

History

From designer Brendan Votano – “I was building a new counter at my family’s fish & chip shop one night when the idea came to mind as I was looking at different offcuts of wood. The different patterns of grain and sizes of the pieces all piled together reminded me of the blocks we used to play with as a child. Playing around with these pieces of wood inspired the gameplay idea of wood fitting together only in certain configurations. So I created a puzzle game where the blocks behave as if they are real physical things.”
