

Producer Stephan Smirou Remakes Popkanon's Debut Single "Brothers"

OSLO, NORWAY, July 29, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Norwegian production team Popkanon, in collaboration with French-Norwegian producer and composer Stephan Smirou, is releasing an instant feel-good remake of the hit song "Brothers." The original "Brothers" received praise from journalists around the world and gained radio play in Europe. The song originally combined genres of indie pop, country, and hip-hop. This time, the song is repackaged with a brand new feel good vibe, ready to hit the dance floors worldwide as a catchy Melodic House-track. The remake still retains some elements of the original song, incorporating the swagger from the Chicago hip-hop artist "Exclusive" and the soulful vocals from the R&B singer "Nef."

spot on interpretation of Stephan Smirou revitalizes the message of the song, which is the vulnerability of loneliness and the strength of togetherness and in looking out for one another. Wrapped in the genre of Melodic House, Stephan Smirou succeeds brilliantly in introducing the song to a broader audience...and to the dancefloor.

"Brothers"(Club Version) can be streamed on Spotify, iTunes, and all other major streaming services. To listen to
