M2 ProDesign Team

Fabiola Juliet Giron, a devoted mother, and longshorewoman, is a testament to the transformative power of fitness and physical strength. From a young age, Fabiola discovered her natural athleticism and competitive spirit, which led her to join the high school cross-country running team. Growing up in a traditional Mexican family, she witnessed many of her relatives' weight gain and fitness struggles, motivating her to embark on a lifelong journey toward a healthier lifestyle.

Fabiola's passion for fitness intensified when she was introduced to a Gold's Gym Body Pump class by a friend. The thrill of challenging herself and pushing her physical and mental limits in the gym captivated her, leading her to prioritize fitness over indulgent family meals. Becoming a mother in her late twenties further fueled her dedication to her fitness journey, as she wanted to be a positive role model for her son and inspire him with a healthy lifestyle.

Her commitment to healthy eating and exercise has resulted in lifelong habits that she now loves to share with others. Fabiola finds fulfillment in inspiring others, whether through sharing her experiences and knowledge or offering guidance and support in the gym, especially to women seeking to improve their techniques and use of equipment.

Fabiola's motivation lies in empowering younger and older women to embrace fitness as a lifestyle, believing that age should never limit one's potential for change. She firmly advocates that fitness can significantly impact confidence, self-love, and the ability to overcome life's challenges.

"I want to be a source of motivation, inspiration, and courage for people to live their best lives," says Fabiola. "No matter the obstacles, with determination and effort, anyone can experience the profound benefits of striving for physical fitness."

As a longshore woman, Fabiola embodies resilience and strength, which extend beyond her physical abilities. With a passion for helping others, she aspires to motivate and empower individuals to transform their lives through fitness. Fabiola firmly believes that the rewards of pursuing a healthy lifestyle far outweigh any challenges one might face on this journey.
