Staffing, a leading staffing agency in Tacoma, Kent, and surrounding areas, is thrilled to announce the successful merger of its Kent, WA branch with its Tacoma, WA branch. This strategic move aims to enhance operational efficiency, streamline services, and provide an even higher level of support to clients and job seekers in the region.

The consolidation of these two well-established branches will create a stronger and more cohesive entity that can better serve the evolving needs of the labor market in the greater Seattle-Tacoma area. The merger will leverage the collective expertise and resources of both branches, resulting in improved workforce solutions and increased opportunities for both employers and workers.

With this merger, clients can expect expanded service offerings, increased access to qualified candidates, and a seamless experience when partnering with LaborMax Staffing for their staffing and workforce
