The CORE Gaming Tactical Backpack is made from the same ballistic nylon found in flak jackets. A Twice VIP Award winner, this backpack is designed to take a beating.

It offers a dedicated compartment for laptops and gaming consoles up to 17.3 inches, a Microfiber lined pouch for a tablet, plus plenty of additional space to safeguard and organize tech. There’s even room for personal items for game nights or a weekend trek. Highly configurable, the backpack’s external, front webbing can be customized using removable “MOLLE” pockets for storage.

The award-winning CORE Gaming Backpack holds most models of gaming laptops up to 17.3 to 18 inches and/or gaming consoles (Xbox One, PS4, Nintendo Switch). The backpack offers three large storage sections that are pre-wired for a power bank or external battery. Four side accessory pockets are perfect for cables, a smartphone, a gaming mouse, or even oversized water bottles. Its high-capacity storage compartment holds a variety of gaming accessories.

Outdoor adventurers might also enjoy the roomy new CORE Gaming Deluxe Duffel. Also made of ballistic nylon, it's rugged and durable. Gamers can stow gear in its large main compartment, which includes two zippered pockets and two open slip pockets. Highlights include zippered side sections, heavy-duty feet to protect and stabilize, wrapped handles, and a removable and adjustable shoulder strap. The duffel also makes a great bag for the gym, overnight trip, or weekend getaway.

Both the CORE Gaming Tactical Backpack and the CORE Gaming Backpack feature trolley straps for stacking on other luggage. The backpacks and the duffel all come with a hook-and-loop (Velcro) panel for showing off tournament, school, and vendor patches.
