

Benedetta: The Pioneering All Botanical Skin Care Line Offering 25% OFF During Their ANNUAL HARVEST SALE 8/5 & 8/6

PETALUMA, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, August 3, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Benedetta, the revolutionary all botanical clean skin care brand, proudly announces its annual harvest sale offering 25% OFF sitewide this weekend August 5th and 6th. Founded by Julia Faller in 1996, Benedetta is the first of its kind, embracing certified organic and biodynamic agriculture with functional formulations.

Benedetta's authenticity and purpose sets it apart from the rest. No single botanical or ingredient is as useful or bioavailable to the skin until they are unified to create a purpose. By understanding the true methodology of what the skin needs to be healthy and balanced, Benedetta's formulations become functional skin care preparations that purify, correct, protect, and nourish without resorting to pharmaceuticals or falsified ingredients.

"I marry the intelligence and wisdom of botanicals in a way that resonates with our vital core and functions of the skin," says Julia Faller.

With a 5-Step Day and 3-Step Night Facial Regimen, Benedetta caters to diverse skin needs. Emphasizing certified organic and biodynamic ingredients, the brand fosters a close relationship with family-owned farms domestic and worldwide.
