

Product Update: Upcoming Exciting Features at Axon Finance

LAREN, NOORD-HOLLAND, THE NETHERLANDS, August 2, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Axon Finance is set to take a quantum leap forward in cryptocurrency trading. Leveraging advanced artificial intelligence (AI) and machine learning (ML) algorithms provides valuable trading insights for various cryptocurrencies. This helps traders confidently navigate the digital asset market. Here's a preview of the exciting enhancements Axon Finance is readying for its users:

Scalability: Preparing for an Expanded User Base

With a public beta launch on the horizon, we're ensuring Axon Finance is equipped for rapid growth. Our team optimizes the platform's technology to accommodate a larger user base while maintaining smooth and efficient performance, even when scaling up to 100,000 users. More details on our public launch will follow soon.

Freemium Structure: Democratizing Access to Trading Intelligence

Emphasizing our commitment to making trading intelligence widely accessible, Axon Finance will have a freemium model. This approach will grant users access to an array of essential features for free, with advanced options available to premium subscribers.

Revamped User Interface: Enhancing Your Trading Journey

User experience is at the forefront of our innovations. We're reinventing our user interface to ensure a streamlined and intuitive trading experience, making identifying potential trading opportunities faster and easier than ever.

□ Innovative Modules: Gem Vision and Token Sniffer

Two unique trading modules, Gem Vision and Token Sniffer, are coming to Axon Finance. Gem

Vision offers insights into major cryptocurrencies, i.e., top 200 CoinMarketCap, while Token Sniffer monitors less-established tokens, providing a more tailored and versatile trading experience. □

Streamlining Onboarding: ChatGPT Integration

Axon Finance is integrating the AI model ChatGPT with a communication platform to enhance user onboarding. This integration will facilitate real-time interactions, provide quick access to our knowledge base, and offer improved customer assistance.

What Awaits Axon Finance?

A lot is unfolding behind the scenes at Axon Finance. We've successfully concluded our pre-seed funding round, led by Acyclic, a venture capital firm focusing on Web3, DeFi, and AI. Acyclic, with its successful investments in startups like zkSync and Sui, brings valuable experience and resources to our platform. Alongside this, we're building strategic partnerships to solidify Axon Finance as a leader in the fintech landscape.

Axon Finance continues its commitment to empowering traders through AI technology as we progress. These exciting updates are just the beginning as we strive to reshape the future of AI-driven cryptocurrency trading.

The future is bright, and we're thrilled to have you join us on this extraordinary journey.
