

Managed Health Taps Into Gig Economy Potential Through Partnership with Gig Worker Solutions

"Managed Health leverages Gig Worker Solutions to empower its brokers, extending crucial benefits to under served gig economy professionals."

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, UNITED STATES, August 8, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Managed Health, an industry innovator in simplified healthcare solutions, proudly announces its transformative partnership with Gig Worker Solutions. This alliance is set to bolster Managed Health's ability to reach, engage, and serve the substantial yet underserved gig economy, currently estimated to be a staggering 74 million workers across the United States.

Gig Worker Solutions, a ground-breaking Tech Professional Employer Organization (PEO), has set new standards by providing gig economy workers with access to essential group benefits such as Worker's Compensation, Group Health Insurance, and retirement planning, which were previously only within the reach of traditional W2 employees.

This strategic collaboration enables Managed Health's insurance professionals, many of whom are gig workers themselves, to significantly expand their client base and capabilities.

"This partnership not only empowers our brokers to serve the vast gig economy, but it also personally benefits many of them who are gig workers as well," says Mouhamet "Moe" Seye, CEO of Managed Health. "With Gig Worker Solutions, we can now provide support to those who have been unable to access vital benefits, services, and resources before."
