

Collin College, TX, Raises Procurement Standards with OpenGov

After years of relying on an outdated system, Collin College decided to upgrade its procurement platform. OpenGov was the solution it chose.

TEXAS, UNITED STATES, August 2, 2023
/EINPresswire.com/ -- Collin College,

Texas, wanted to elevate its procurement processes for improved efficiency and management. Looking for robust procurement features and personalized support, the College decided to partner with OpenGov, the leading software provider for local government and educational institutions.

Collin College, a leading educational institution in Texas, had been content with an average procurement platform for years. But finally, the procurement team recognized an opportunity for significant improvement to their processes. In the search, the College prioritized features like streamlined solicitation development, integrated systems, and efficient contract management. OpenGov Procurement stood out with its mission-driven approach, dynamic customer support, and commitment to consistent innovation.

With the integration of OpenGov Procurement, Collin College anticipates a complete transformation in its procurement processes. The adoption promises to streamline solicitation development and enhance the bid response process for vendors, ensuring smooth operations and high-quality outcomes. Moreover, the partnership with OpenGov will help foster an environment of shared success, guided by a team committed to listening, adapting, and driving excellence in procurement services.

Collin College, TX, joins thousands of public sector organizations leveraging OpenGov to revolutionize work processes with cloud-based software designed specifically for the needs of government.
