DeBosier Injury Lawyers, a prominent Louisiana law firm committed to supporting its community, is excited to announce its Back-to-School Gift Card Giveaway. As the new school year approaches, the firm is showing its dedication to helping teachers and families with the expenses of a new academic year by giving away 12 Amazon gift cards, each worth $250.

We recognize the financial challenges many teachers and families face. We hope to alleviate some of the burden by providing these gift cards and help educators and students start the term confidently.”

Dudley DeBosier managing partner, Chad Dudley

According to a recent survey by the National Retail Federation and Prosper Insights & Analytics, back-to-school spending is expected to reach $41.5 billion in 2023, up from $36.9 billion last year and the previous high of $37.1 billion in 2021. As exciting as a new school year can be, it can also be challenging for teachers and families to afford everything required to start the school year off right. 96% of teachers purchase essential school supplies so their students don't go without; many spend approximately $860 a year on supplies.

To counteract the financial burden presented by back-to-school shopping, teachers and families can enter to win one of 12 $250 Amazon gift cards for back-to-school supplies by completing the form at <https://www.dudleydebosier.com/backtoschool/>. The submission period begins on August 1, 2023, and concludes at 10 a.m. on August 31, 2023. Dudley DeBosier will contact the winners on September 1, 2023.

"We recognize the financial challenges many teachers and families face when getting ready for the new school year. We hope to alleviate some of the burden by providing these gift cards and help educators and students start the academic term confidently," said managing partner Chad Dudley.
