We are always focused on what we can do to help others in every community we serve.”

Graziella Marengi, Co-franchise Owner

California Closets donated organizational solutions for heavily utilized rooms at the Ronald McDonald Houses serving the North Carolina Triangle area and Richmond, Virginia. The houses received the full California Closets experience, including meeting with a designer, reviewing CAD drawings, selecting brand new materials custom-built for the spaces, and professional installation. These improved organizational solutions and additional storage spaces created more welcoming and open spaces that felt more like a home and enabled the Ronald McDonald Houses to serve families better.

“We are always focused on what we can do to help others in every community we serve,” says Graziella Marengi, Co-franchise Owner of five California Closets locations in North Carolina and Virginia. “These communities have played a major role in our achievements, so giving back is always our priority. We want to share our success and help create a strong sense of unity that fosters caring, supportive communities.” Those interested in supporting the Ronald McDonald

House can visit

In addition to the space transformation, California Closets participated in Derby for Dogs, a Wilmington, North Carolina-based charity event supporting paws4people, a foundation committed to educating and empowering people to utilize Assistance Dogs to transform their lives. California Closets served as a Puppy Winner's Circle sponsor and supported Leia, a puppy who participated in the race.

In September, California Closets will be the "Key to the Closet" sponsor for Wine Women & Shoes, one of the largest charity events in Wilmington, which supports paws4people. The event will feature a "Key to the Doghouse," in which guests can purchase "keys" to unlock the event's main prize of the evening. The event will take place in Wilmington on September 21, 2023. Those interested in supporting Wine, Women & Shoes can visit <https://www.winewomenandshoes.com/event/p4p/>.

"Organizations like paws4people help us support individuals who are facing unique challenges by providing the resources that create a better environment where everyone can thrive," says Marengi. "Through events like Derby for Dogs and Wine Women & Shoes, we are helping to provide our communities with the support animals they need. We hope that our support raises awareness and drives even more participation." Those interested in supporting paws4people can visit <https://www.paws4people.org>.

California Closets is proud to support these initiatives throughout North Carolina and Virginia and encourages all who can to join them in supporting these important local community causes.
