Family Fun Fest has quickly become a community tradition for families and individuals, and this year's installment promises to exceed all expectations. The foundation has worked tirelessly to curate a day filled with activities that cater to all ages, ensuring a memorable experience for everyone.

Attendees can look forward to an incredible lineup of games, prizes, backpacks, workshops, and so much more. From the KeyLyme Experience Band, the Silver Steppers to words of encouragement from Bruno Mars Trumpeter and Silk Sonic Band Member, Jimmy King, the event will have something to entertain and delight visitors of all ages. Prizes galore will be up for grabs, adding an extra layer of excitement to the festivities.

The Mary Parker Foundation is committed to supporting education and learning. As part of their mission to empower the youth, the foundation will be giving away backpacks filled with essential school supplies to help students kickstart the upcoming academic year with confidence.

The highlight of the Family Fun Fest will undoubtedly be the appearance of the legendary Universal Soul Circus ringmaster, Casual Cal. A true master of entertainment, Casual Cal's dynamic presence and engaging persona have earned him a special place in the hearts not only in the community, but also of audiences worldwide. His hosting of the event is sure to elevate the festivities to new heights, promising an unforgettable experience for all.

"We are delighted to host the Third Annual Family Fun Fest, and this year's event is set to be our most remarkable one yet," said Mary Parker. "With the exceptional talent of Casual Cal as our ringmaster, we are thrilled to bring a touch of magic and wonder to the families and communities we serve."
