FORT LAUDERDALE , FLORIDA, USA,

received a call from Evelyn Bertolucci, a

"When we got the call from Evelyn, we were overjoyed by how much TRD was willing to donate to Habitat — we are so grateful for their generous donation," said Mark Camacho, Habitat Broward ReStore's General Manager. "It is unheard of that a developer take the care, time, and commitment to make such a positive impactful difference on so many levels and show others an outline of deconstruction best practices that could literally be transformational to the community, and to the environment. Since early June, Habitat has been to the location multiple times, picked up hundreds of items. The proceeds from the sale of these items will help support Habitat for Humanity's affordable homeownership ministry."

Habitat Broward extends their sincere gratitude to the executives who cleared the red tape to make this donation a possibility. Special thanks to Larry Pecan, General Counsel, who approved the donations and always inquires on our progress, and Taylor B. Collins, Managing Partner of Two Roads Development LLC.

Habitat Broward ReStore is a nonprofit home improvement store and donation center that sells new and gently used furniture, appliances, home accessories, building materials and more to the public at a fraction of the original retail price.
