Overcome your Fears."

"Take an exciting journey with me into my world of action stunts, adventures, joy, heartbreak, death, and my uncanny desire to overcome my fears and follow my dreams. I hope to inspire you to live your dream life, too," says Peterson.

Commencing her journey in New York City as an actress, Peterson's path took a pivotal turn on the set of "Kojak," a television series featuring Telly Savalas. Observing a thrilling car chase orchestrated by two stunt performers, Peterson immediately realized her true calling. Nonetheless, persuading others to believe in her dream proved to be challenging. According to The Malibu Times, the stuntmen turned down Peterson's request to join them, telling her, "Forget it, honey, we put the wigs on, and we do the stunts." Peterson did not give up. "Make a Plan to follow your dream. Whatever you dream, you can be," she says. Her persistence paid off, and she was given a chance. However, her first attempt at a stunt was unsuccessful. "Don't push the panic button. Just put it in neutral and start over," says Peterson. Afforded a second opportunity, Peterson executed the stunt flawlessly, which was the start of her blossoming
