

The Martini Golf Classic Business Networking Tournament October 2, 2023

A business networking golf tournament with a portion of the proceeds to be allocated to families battling Cancer.

WESTON, FL, USA, August 7, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Calling all business leaders! The Martini Golf Classic Business Networking Tournament is set to take place on October 2, 2023, at the prestigious Club at Weston Hills in Weston, Florida. This exclusive Executive Golf Event promises to be a day filled with excellent golf, meaningful connections, and the opportunity to give back to the community.

Hosted by Doris Muscarella, The Martini Golf Classic is not your typical golf outing. It offers a unique platform for executives and professionals to meet and interact with other business leaders in their target market while supporting a noble cause. A portion of the proceeds from the event will be donated to My Family Matters Foundation, a non-profit organization dedicated to helping families dealing with Cancer.

This Professional Business Networking Tournament is tailored to provide an exceptional golfing experience, complemented by strategic networking opportunities. Participants will enjoy the picturesque greens of the renowned Robert Trent Jones, Jr. course while engaging in meaningful conversations that can lead to potential business partnerships, collaborations, and professional growth.
