Woman in the World by James Coignard

Having been in the art world for quite some time, I've seen works that mesmerize and those that resonate. James Coignard's art does both. There's a raw, untamed energy in his creations...”

Catherine Martens Betz

Beyond their aesthetic value, Coignard's pieces provide insights into the human condition, exploring themes of vulnerability, chaos, and complex human emotions. His works have consistently encouraged viewers to engage in introspection, each interpreting the art in a way that's deeply personal.

Catherine Martens Betz, owner of The Elliott Gallery, shared her perspective on Coignard's works: "James Coignard has consistently demonstrated the power of abstract art to evoke emotion and provoke thought. His work, both dynamic and delicate, offers viewers a chance to reflect on their own experiences and emotions."
