Vallye Adams, CEO and Founder of Etavele Solutions. Adams is the winner of the 2023 Female Non-Profit Consultant & Auctioneer of the Year presented by Acquisition International Magazine.

Adams has an interesting background. She went from winning multi-state and national scholarships to a college dropout which culminated in a severe depression. She embraced the odds, and with persistence, turned her life around to become a national director for an international nonprofit, raising millions for noble causes. She's also a successful female entrepreneur, a licensed auctioneer, consultant, multi-international best-selling author and revenue growth expert, helping nonprofit organizations maximize their funding potential, events, and mission advancement.

In her book, "Yes I Can!":16 Success Secrets from Inspiring Women, Adams revealed her recipe for success, "STRENGTHS, not expectations, are my Superpower. The key is to find and know YOUR strengths, using them. as lifelines...sharing it with others, this will unleash your powers and ultimately lead you to your desired goal of success!!"

Etavele Solutions, LLC, is a national consulting firm based in Tampa, Florida. Etavele offers solutions to 'elevate' and enhance events, engage boards, and expand into new markets and advance missions, specializing in proven sustainable revenue developmen

Adams is ecstatic to to be recognized with a prestigious AI Award, "I am proud to be even considered for an international award but most importantly, I am incredibly honored to be represented alongside such inspirational and powerful women. To see the women business leaders from around the world be recognized is something I'm most proud of", she said after receiving the award.
