The home's owners and decorators, Eleni and her husband, have infused the property with unique character, referring to the home as a "goddess." The entrance area features a family heirloom bench, adding a touch of personal history and charm.

During the VIP opening and preview, Orange County local Daniel de Castellane, PR and Media Strategist specializing in luxury and lifestyle, toured the house. Having collaborated with celebrity realtors including Bronwyn, he remarked, "Bronwyn's ability to present homes that resonate with artistry and soul is unique. This Laguna Beach property is a clear reflection of her dedication to showcasing homes that are not merely luxurious but have a story to tell."

The property's outdoor space is equally enchanting, offering multiple decks, lush landscaping with an organic herb garden, and a sparkling saltwater pool encircled by glass walls.

Co-listing agent Jennifer Castaneda (DRE# 01996563) highlights the practical features of the home, including an oversized driveway with a 3-car garage and a recent addition of a three-floor wireless mesh Wi-Fi system.

The bespoke custom furnishings, including original minimalistic artwork painted by the owners, are available to purchase separately, making this unique turnkey property ready to welcome its new owners.

"This home is more than just a property; it's a magical experience waiting to be discovered," concludes Bronwyn.
