Veritas Press: K-12 Live Online Classical Christian Education

VSA high school students gain a significant head start on their college journey—while benefiting from a supportive learning environment that prioritizes academic excellence and spiritual development.”

Dr. Bob Cannon, Vice President of Educational Services at Veritas

“We continue to add value for our students in creative ways that help them advance their academic and personal growth,” said Dr. Bob Cannon, Vice President of Educational Services at Veritas. “With this Cairn University dual enrollment collaboration, VSA high school students gain a significant head start on their college journey—while benefiting from a supportive learning environment that prioritizes academic excellence and spiritual development.”

This initiative was created to help prepare the next generation of scholars and leaders for success in both academia and life. Eligible dual enrollment courses include English, Languages, Math, Logic & Rhetoric, Sciences, and more. After successful completion of an eligible course, the enrolled high school student will receive credit from both Veritas Scholars Academy and Cairn University. Cairn’s educational tracks emphasize biblical integration, the cultivation of wisdom and strategic engagement with the world—fitting closely with Veritas Scholars Academy's classical Christian educational model and courses.
