Definition:

Ready to Drink Premixes

Ready-to-drink (RTD) premixes refer to packaged beverages that are prepared and mixed with ingredients in a ready-to-consume format. These beverages are usually pre-mixed with the necessary ingredients, eliminating the need for additional preparation or mixing by the consumer. RTD premixes are popular for their convenience, portability, and ease of consumption. Ready-to-drink premixes are popular among consumers who value convenience, quick consumption, and consistent flavors. They are commonly found in grocery stores, convenience stores, and vending machines, catering to a wide range of tastes and preferences.
