

Italian Singer/Songwriting Sensation Erene Mastrangeli Unveils Debut Album Loveshine, Out 11-17-23

A musical crusade against hate and inequality, Loveshine is the artist's testament to the undeniable power of love.

NEW YORK, NY, USA, August 9, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Internationally acclaimed singer/songwriter Erene Mastrangeli has announced the upcoming release of her debut album, Loveshine, on November 17, 2023 on Angels Music Records.

"Love, Shine," the captivating title track of Erene's upcoming album, set the path for the creation of the full body of work. Erene wrote the song immediately following the tragic Pulse nightclub mass shooting in Orlando, FL, after she felt compelled to use music as a channel for her emotions. Since that time, her mission became clear: to promote love over hatred, racism, discrimination, and inequality through her music.

Erene's music carries echoes of the iconic 70s songwriters, a timeless homage to her influences. Aptly hailed as the 'Italian Joni Mitchell' during the album's creation in Rome, Erene masterfully wove her tales under the skillful guidance of acclaimed Italian
