There is no place more beautiful than the wonders of the British countryside in winter. These Christmas Collections are an experience as much as they are a gift.”

Katy Simpson, Founder of Noble Isle

want to reignite the senses and celebrate nature in its undeniable glory. As experts in olfaction and design, Noble Isle has curated each Christmas Gift Set around quintessential British moments, from the charming countryside to the bustling cities.

‘There is no place more beautiful than the wonders of the British countryside in winter and with this Christmas collection I wanted to highlight a few of my favourite things. Breathe in and appreciate the moment as gently-contoured summits rise over lochs and shadowy oak woods, allowing the calming scents of the forest to envelop your senses and transport you to a state of inner peace. Wander through hedgerows abundant with tart, winter berries, stumble across shimmering streams, let the natural aromas of the British countryside nourish your mind and soul, allowing you to escape the hustle and bustle of daily life. These Christmas Collections are an experience as much as they are a gift.’ Katy Simpson, Founder of Noble Isle.

The fragrances in each Luxury Gift Set have been personally curated by Founder, Katy Simpson to bring her vision alive. The packaging itself was inspired by luxurious chocolate box wrapping paper that Katy discovered in Liberty in London, combining the crisp first bite of an Autumn Pear, the magical evening song of the Blackbird, the earthiness of a carpet of Pinecones and Pheasants scarpering down frosty, country lanes.

This Christmas collection is as much about giving as it is about being thankful. To admire the beauty of nature, aligns with Noble Isle’s vision of becoming a more sustainable company. The company already use natural ingredients, recyclable packaging, support local businesses and charities, implemented refillable products across their range and are in the process of seeking approval by both The Leaping Bunny and Vegan Association.
