acumen, and marketing strategies. However, the Gayle O'Connor Spirit Award celebrates the "human" spirit. It commemorates the unquenchable enthusiasm, tenacity, and generous nature that Gayle personified.

Tom O'Connor, Gayle O'Connor's husband and Director of the Gulf Coast Legal Technology Center, expressed his happiness about the 4th Annual Gayle O'Connor Spirit Award.

"It's remarkable to see the growth of this award over the years, a true testament to our community's support. This growth is not just about the award—it's about keeping Gayle's memory alive, her impactful legacy. Seamus (our son) and I are grateful as we envision another deserving individual, embodying Gayle's spirit, receiving this honor. Thank you all for ensuring this beautiful tradition continues to flourish."

Past Recipients

Past recipients of this prestigious award include Tom O'Connor on behalf of Gayle O'Connor, Joy Murao, and Sheila Grela. They are shining examples of Gayle's indefatigable spirit, having considerably impacted the community.

About the Gayle O'Connor Spirit Award

The Gayle O'Connor (GO) Spirit Award celebrates e-discovery and legal technology community members whose singular energy, enthusiasm, and verve echo the spirit of the late Gayle O'Connor (1956-2020). The GO Spirit Award recipients have contributed to e-discovery, legal technology, information governance, cybersecurity, or data privacy through efforts that inspire, educate, or promote our community's common interest and cohesion. Recipients of the GO Spirit Award are individuals in the legal profession who best exemplifies Gayle O'Connor's spirit and work ethic by serving as an example for other individuals in the profession through attitude, collegiality, energy, and accomplishments, thereby serving as a positive example for not just those in the legal industry but all people. Each recipient's efforts inspire, educate, or promote the common interest and cohesion of our community. The GO Spirit Award is presented each December on eDiscovery Day. Learn more about the GO Spirit Award on LinkedIn.
