

Web3 Infrastructure Provider Zeeve Secures Follow-On Investment of $1,000,000 from ExpertDojo VC

This follow-on investment marks a crucial step in Zeeve's journey as they prepare for the next level of growth and innovation in the web3 infrastructure space.

SANTA MONICA, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, August 9, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Zeeve, an industry-leading Blockchain Infrastructure-as-a-Service platform, is thrilled to announce a strategic investment of $1M from Expert Dojo, a globally recognized startup accelerator and investment firm. This follow-on investment marks a significant step in Zeeve's journey as they prepare for the next level of growth and innovation in the web3 infrastructure space.

With operational bases in India, the US, Europe, and Dubai, Zeeve has made a name for itself in the domain of no-code web3 infrastructure solutions, enabling businesses to seamlessly transition to the web3 ecosystem. The platform supports over 45 blockchain protocols, offering enterprise-grade infrastructure for Public, Permissive, and application-specific blockchains. Zeeve simplifies the intricate web3 infrastructure, significantly reducing costs and deployment times, enabling projects to swiftly move into production, bypassing multiple layers of infrastructure management. Zeeve has emerged as a trusted name in the Web3 space, serving thousands of startups and investors across the globe.

The partnership with ExpertDojo stems from a shared vision to revolutionize enterprise-scale Web3 solutions. With a deep understanding of emerging technology and a strong track record in scaling startups, ExpertDojo provided Zeeve with invaluable guidance and resources to navigate the market and establish a strong presence through its accelerator program.

"It's been rewarding to see our partnership with ExpertDojo unfold, and we're keen to further draw upon their expertise," said Dr Ravi Chamria co-founder & CEO of Zeeve. "Partnering with ExpertDojo accelerated our growth in our early phase. Their expertise in go-to-market strategies and customer acquisition gave Zeeve better exposure in diverse markets, especially in the US market. The follow-on investment of $1M stands as a strong endorsement of their belief in Zeeve's potential within the dynamic web3 landscape. Zeeve stays firmly committed to its mission - to simplify the complexities of blockchain-based solutions, facilitating their adoption on a grand scale."

Brian Mac Mahon, the founder of ExpertDojo, added, "this second investment in Zeeve shows how much conviction we have in Zeeve's ability to dominate in the web3 infrastructure landscape. This investment is demonstrative of our belief that Zeeve will be one of the most significant players in the space within the next 5 years, and sets the stage for a very strong series A in early 2024."

Zeeve anticipates a 200% growth this year riding on the increasing traction among the enterprises and web3 startups. The funding from this strategic partnership will be used to expedite their expansion plans and further solidify Zeeve's position as a leading provider of no-code automated web3 infrastructure solutions.
