NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, August 10, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- All eyes were on Costa Rica Fashion week and its star model, philanthropist Elton Ilirjani who opened the show held at the Antigua Aduana. Wearing a spectacular creation by young designer, Tami Quesada, Elton opened the show for the National Learning Institute (INA) demonstrating characteristic poise and grace.

“The CRFW, the designers and people of Costa Rica were so welcoming – it feels very special to have been invited and to be at fashion week at a time when it is raising the key questions of sustainability and the future. My experience energized me to look forward to New York Fashion Week this September” says Ilirjani.
