acclaimed documentary film, “Behrouz: A Legend on Screen.” The picture offers an intimate and captivating portrait of the legendary foreign film star, Behrouz Vossoughi, showcasing their rise to fame, artistic journey, and enduring impact on cinema.

The festive screening will occur at the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences’ Samuel Goldwyn Theater in Beverly Hills, California. Replete with a red-carpet event, the film event promises to be a glamorous and unforgettable evening celebrating the life and achievements of one of the most beloved icons of international cinema, Iranian actor Vossoughi. Many Persian celebrities are slated to attend the event.

Directed by Sepehr Mikaeilian, "Behrouz: A Legend on Screen" is a Farsi-language tribute to Behrouz's unparalleled talent and significant contributions to the global film industry. Behrouz Vossoughi, the celebrated Iranian actor, left his country just before the revolution in 1978, unable to return to his homeland. The documentary, presented with English subtitles, paints a vivid picture of the star's journey, struggles, and triumphs of his film career and his life in exile through exclusive interviews, rare behind-the-scenes footage, and clips from their most iconic films.

"We are honored to showcase this fascinating documentary film that delves into the exceptional life of the exiled Behrouz Vossoughi," said Max Amini, CEO of Abstraction Media, the screening's presenter, "His impact on cinema has been immeasurable, and we are excited to share his story with the Hollywood community." Amini will moderate a post-film Q&A (Question and Answer) session with Behrouz and Mikaeilian.

The special screening, preceded by a red-carpet event, will be attended by esteemed guests, industry professionals, fellow actors, and devoted fans eagerly awaiting this revealing, big-screen glimpse into the life of their favorite film star. Ticket sales for the general public will be available at www.BehrouzTix.com/BH.
