About the Author:

Kae is an engaging storyteller. Whether she is spinning one of her many traumatic episodes as a young mother into a humorous inspirational "you can do it" story or weaving a thrilling tale that pulls you into the darker side of her mind, she captivates her audience and has them hanging off her every word.

Kae lives in Tennessee with her husband, David (who just happens to be her biggest fan), her mother-in-law, Jackie, and her ever-faithful female Goldendoodle, Bernie. She has 3 grown children, a nephew/son, and by way of marriage, has added 4 more characters to her ensemble. She is currently the proud "Grandma" to 5, "Queen" to 1, and "Coco" to 1. She is grandma to 6 fur-grandbabies and sister-in-law to one cute little guy named Cooper. Kae's life is in a constant state of love, laughter, and utter chaos, just the way she likes it.

Kae has co-authored two autobiographical books that spin the adventures of motherhood into a collection of humorous short stories: Cookies for Dinner and Panic Early Panic Often.
