

The Mark Schonwetter Holocaust Education Foundation Announces The Opening Of Grant Portal and Teacher Resources Webinar

Grant Applications Available to Schools For the 2023-2024 School Year

UNITED STATES, August 15, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Mark Schonwetter Holocaust Education Foundation (MSHEF) announced today that their grant application portal for the 2023-2024 school year is now open until October 15, 2023.

The Mark Schonwetter Holocaust Education Foundation aims to teach anti-hate initiatives, respect, and kindness to students through Holocaust education by funding grants for teachers to purchase educational materials and programming, subsidize field trips to Holocaust museums, and bring Holocaust survivor speakers into schools and classrooms.

As one educator said about their MSHEF grant, "... I wasn't sure how my students would receive the book or the subject of the Holocaust as a whole, but I knew that now, more than ever before, in this climate of hate that continues to grow in our world, it was so important to teach! Not only did the 8th graders accept the topic, but they embraced it, and all the life lessons that came along with it."

Live every day with love, respect and kindness and you will accomplish so much more in life."

As part of the grant application process, the Mark Schonwetter Holocaust Education Foundation will host its Second Annual Teacher Resources Webinar on September 19, 2023, at 6 PM EST. Teachers will learn about available

About the Mark Schonwetter Holocaust Education Foundation:

The Mark Schonwetter Holocaust Education Foundation (MSHEF) is a non-profit organization that provides grants for educators to teach anti-hate initiatives, respect, and kindness to students nationwide through Holocaust education.

Co-founded in 2019 by Ann Arnold and Isabella Fiske in honor of their father Mark Schonwetter, a Holocaust survivor, the foundation funds grants for educators up to $1,000 to provide learning materials, books, support field trips and programming, and bring Holocaust survivor speakers into schools and classrooms.

The Mark Schonwetter Holocaust Education Foundation is the only foundation that provides grants for educators to empower students nationwide with Holocaust education. In just 3 years, MSHEF has granted over $195,000, covering 30 states and reaching over 73,000 students.
