Photography by Paul Spataro and Beauty Refinery NYC Team Up for Headshot Event to Benefit The Entertainment Community Fund in NYC

LONG ISLAND CITY, NY, USA, August 12, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Beauty Refinery NYC, A Premier Beauty Concierge Service featuring hair and makeup artists from the TV and film industry is teaming up with Photography by Paul Spataro to host a benefit event for the Entertainment Community Fund at Mandragoras Art Space, 36-01 36th Avenue, 3rd Floor, Long Island City, NY 11106 on Friday, August 25th and Saturday, August 26th from 10:00 AM - 6:00 PM.

Participants will receive a mini-headshot session along with hair makeup touch-ups for a voluntary donation. All net proceeds will go to the Entertainment Community Fund.

With the entertainment industry embroiled in strikes from the WGA and SAG-AFTRA some industry professionals are looking for interim work to help them get through. Understanding that in today's social media driven work place a good headshot helps show potential employers who they're hiring, Photography by Paul Spataro and The Beauty Refinery NYC look to help not only those needing a headshot, but other industry professionals by raising money for The Entertainment Community Fund, a non-profit organization offering emergency funds and services to entertainment industry people in need.

Paul Spataro says, "The WGA and SAG-AFTRA have valid and justifiable concerns that affect not only their members, but entertainment folks down the line. As a small way to support our industry brothers and sisters, Kristen Kiyon (The Beauty Refinery NYC), and I are hoping to prop up people's outlook while raising money for The Entertainment Community Fund so those hit hardest can find some relief through their efforts."
