

Randy "Boom Boom" Blake Jr. Inducted into The United States Martial Arts Hall of Fame Class of 2023

"Randy 'Boom Boom' Blake Jr. inducted into the U.S. Martial Arts Hall of Fame 2023, embarks on a community healing project in Tulsa."

TULSA, OKLAHOMA, UNITED STATES, August 14, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Randy "Boom Boom" Blake Jr., a name synonymous with dedication, passion, and excellence in martial arts, has achieved yet another milestone in his illustrious career. The United States Martial Arts Hall of Fame has honored Blake by inducting him into its class of 2023 under the title "Living Intentionally." This accolade mirrors his 30-year odyssey in the realm of martial arts.

A Life Dedicated to Martial Arts

Blake's commitment to martial arts is a testament to his relentless pursuit of personal growth and transformation. This recent induction isn't merely a nod to his physical prowess but a celebration of the values and life lessons he's imbibed and imparted to others.

During a recent training camp, Blake led a kickboxing seminar, disseminating the knowledge and experience he's amassed over the years. His teachings, while grounded in physical techniques, transcend to inspire and empower others in their martial arts journey.

"Healing the mind is as vital as training the body. Through martial arts, I've found a path to uplift and empower those grappling with their inner battles," reflects Randy "Boom Boom" Blake Jr.

In a heartfelt acknowledgment, Blake extended his gratitude to Dr. John Terry and The International Martial Arts Council Of America for this monumental recognition. He also expressed his appreciation to all who have steadfastly supported and believed in him.

A New Chapter: Healing and Community Building

But the story of "Boom Boom" Blake doesn't culminate with this induction. He's now pivoting his focus towards his local community in Tulsa, collaborating with Amerind Sage from Atoka, Oklahoma. Their joint venture aims to erect a memorial for Black Wall Street using the innovative Tech Company "Waffle Forest"

This memorial will feature 300 trees, each symbolizing a victim of the tragic event. Every tree will be equipped with a QR code, offering information about the individuals, thus crafting a living tribute to those who perished.

This endeavor is not just about creating a memorial; it's a symbol of healing and unity. Blake, along with his partners, aspires to effect change in their community, fostering growth, resilience, and unity through this poignant memorial of healing.

In Conclusion

Healing the mind is as vital as training the body. Through martial arts, I've found a path to uplift and empower those grappling with their inner battles”

Randy Blake Jr.

The induction of Randy "Boom Boom" Blake Jr. into the United States Martial Arts Hall of Fame is a fitting tribute to his contributions to martial arts. Yet, it's his unwavering commitment to personal growth and community upliftment that truly distinguishes him. His endeavors to rejuvenate the city and make a tangible difference underscore the profound influence martial arts can exert on individuals and communities.

Together with his collaborators, Blake envisions a world where martial arts catalyze growth and unity. His narrative serves as a beacon, reminding us that mastery in one's domain can be leveraged to effect positive transformation in the world.
