

NACON USA announces 2023 RIG Future Academy Scholarship offering $15,000

In partnership with The University Network, three students will receive $5,000

KIRKLAND, WASHINGTON, UNITED STATES, August 14, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Nacon, a leading brand in game development and gaming accessories, is thrilled to announce the commencement of its RIG Future Academy Scholarship for the year 2023, in collaboration with The University Network. This scholarship is available to students in the United States, with applications officially opening today. Three outstanding individuals will have the opportunity to receive $5,000 each, which can be utilized towards tuition fees or any expenses related to school.

A core value of Nacon is a belief in the power of practice and commitment - traits that are instrumental to succeed in gaming, academics, and life. Since the inception of Future Academy, Nacon and RIG have taken immense pride in empowering students with the necessary tools for both academic and gaming growth. The RIG Future Academy Scholarship is a testament to this commitment - a program designed to support and guide students on their journey to academic excellence.

Jack Reynolds, President of NACON Gaming Inc., expressed pride in NACON and RIG for supporting skills that enable students to thrive. "The RIG Future Academy Scholarship embodies our core values and those of our customers. We firmly believe gaming can enrich our lives, including academics. Through gaming, students of all ages can hone essential skills such as problem-solving, creativity, strategy and teamwork," said Reynolds.

Peter Corrigan, CEO of The University Network, also lauded the scholarship's positive impact on academics and life. "At The University Network, we are dedicated to helping students discover scholarships that suit them best. With the exponential growth of gamers today, the RIG Future Academy Scholarship perfectly aligns with the needs of many of our students, highlighting the profound influence gaming can have on academic achievement and personal development. We anticipate an overwhelming response from students, driven by their deadlines, throughout the eight-week application period," added Corrigan.

How to Apply:

To apply for the RIG Future Academy Scholarship, students must visit either the RIG Future

Academy Scholarship page or The University Network page and respond to the following prompt: How has gaming helped you in academics?
