

James And James Fulfilment Release Answers To Customers' Most Asked Questions Ahead Of Its Australian Fulfilment Centre Launch

Willawong, Australia – James and James Fulfilment, an international fulfilment partner for eCommerce brands and companies, is excited to announce the release of answers to customers' most asked questions about its Australian Fulfilment Centre that will be launched in the first week of August.

Written by the founders and owners of James and James Fulfilment, these set of questions and answers are designed to give insight into why the company has expanded from America and Europe to Australia, what the new centre is offering customers, how to get started with the company at its new location and further details on the technology and space utilised at the new Fulfilment Centre Australia.

The founders of James and James Fulfilment said, "We're super excited to usher in the next chapter of this journey. Our expansion into Australia isn't just for us; it's for our clients, too. That's why as we near the launch of our Australian Fulfilment Centre, we thought for those interested in learning more or kicking things off in Australia, we'd provide a bit more information."

Some of the questions the founders answered include:

So, why Australia?

"After setting up two fulfilment centres in the USA and one in Europe, Australia was the next logical choice. Australia's eCommerce industry is worth £ 30.3 billion, and that's set to grow by 33% over the next four years. Australia is huge, but it also has a fantastic career network. That means that when you hold stock in Australia, you get goods to customers in 1-4 days, wherever they are on the continent."

And why Brisbane?

"Brisbane is the capital city of Queensland, which just so happens to be the fastest-growing state in Australia. Currently accounting for over 20% of Australia's total population, there's lots of investment planned for the region. Additionally, the geographical location of Brisbane – slap bang in the middle of the country's Eastern side – makes it the perfect place to offer next-day delivery to the East Coast. With our new Brisbane Fulfilment Centre, we're ensuring that both we and our clients continue to grow – together."

Do I need to be an existing James and James client to set up in Australia?

"Absolutely not! Our Australian fulfilment centre is open to any established eCommerce brand that wants to explore the eCom market down under."

Do you offer the same inventory management tools in Australia?

"Yes! Our award-winning inventory management platform, ControlPort, is connected to our Australian site. This allows you to seamlessly manage stock in Australia (and any other of our fulfilment centres you use) in real-time, from one simple, user-friendly interface."
