revenue stream, the RivellePro team rises to the occasion tirelessly," states Tim Frailly, Co-Founder and Chief Executive Officer. "As the e-commerce arena grows more competitive, our team remains at the forefront, leveraging technology to drive consistent sales growth and elevate the prominence of the products under our representation."

The Inc. 5000 class of 2023 represents companies that have driven rapid revenue growth while navigating inflationary pressure, the rising costs of capital, and seemingly intractable hiring challenges. In all, this year's Inc. 5000 companies have added over 1.1 million jobs to the economy over the past three years.

"Running a business has only gotten harder since the end of the pandemic," says Inc. Editor-in-Chief Scott Omelianuk. "To make the Inc. 5000—with the fast growth that requires—is truly an accomplishment. Inc. is thrilled to honor the companies that are building our future."

Frailly further emphasized, "In the ongoing resurgence of the U.S. economy in the post-pandemic landscape, consumer brands recognize the pivotal significance of harnessing their Amazon potential and exploring diverse e-commerce platforms. The recognition we received through last year's Inc. 5000 ranking has been instrumental in driving our continuous growth, serving as a catalyst that introduced a multitude of brands to the diverse and comprehensive range of services provided by RivellePro. Our portfolio encompasses a wide spectrum both domestically and internationally on e-commerce platforms, spanning from vitamins, supplements, and wellness essentials - to skincare, children's products, professional haircare, men's grooming, multi-cultural beauty products, household goods, automotive and sunless & self-tanning brands."

More about Inc. and the Inc. 5000:

For complete results of the Inc. 5000, including company profiles and an interactive database that can be sorted by industry, location, and other criteria, go to www.inc.com/inc5000. The top 500 companies are featured in the September issue of Inc. magazine, available on newsstands beginning Tuesday, August 23.

Methodology:

Companies on the 2023 Inc. 5000 are ranked according to percentage revenue growth from 2019 to 2022. To qualify, companies must have been founded and generating revenue by March 31, 2019. They must be U.S.-based, privately held, for-profit, and independent—not subsidiaries or divisions of other companies—as of December 31, 2022. (Since then, some on the list may have gone public or been acquired.) The minimum revenue required for 2019 is $100,000; the minimum for 2022 is $2 million. As always, Inc. reserves the right to decline applicants for subjective reasons. Growth rates used to determine company rankings were calculated to four decimal places.
