

GUMBO LIMBO COASTAL STEWARDS (GLCS) NOW ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS FOR YOUTH LEADERSHIP COUNCIL

Individuals Ages 10 to 16 with A Passion for Ocean Conservation are Welcome to Apply; Applications Open August 15 through September 15, 2023

BOCA RATON, FL, UNITED STATES, August 15, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Gumbo Limbo Coastal Stewards (GLCS), a nonprofit conservation organization that promotes coastal conservation, supports and funds the activities of sea turtle rescue, rehabilitation, research and release activities (STR) at the Gumbo Limbo Nature Center in Boca Raton, announced today it is accepting applications for its Youth Leadership Council. Applications, which are open to individuals ages 10 to 16 with a passion for ocean conservation, will be accepted through September 15, 2023.

The GLCS Youth Leadership Council was formed in 2023 to help conservation efforts by raising awareness about environmental problems and encouraging the community, especially youth, to help make a positive impact on the Earth. There are four founding members and current officers: Aditya Gupta (age 9), Luca Vendemini (age 10), Anya Gupta (age 12) – president of the organization, and Caleb Caponera (13).

“We are beyond proud of our Gumbo Limbo Coastal Stewards Youth Leadership Council as these are the types of kids that are going to solve the problems that we are facing in the future,” added John Holloway, President & CEO of Gumbo Limbo Coastal Stewards. “While we have contributed to the problem and are trying to figure it out, the answers are really going to rely on what kids have experienced and what they believe to be important. It’s our job to activate them in all the different aspects of wildlife conservation.”
