Communities in the inner city of Chicago face significant challenges and are often underserved. Recognizing this pressing issue, Carlos Redmond, motivated by a genuine desire to give back to the community, established CAVF. With a lot of experience in public relations and marketing communications, Redmond understands the target audience and goals of a quality press release, making him uniquely qualified to lead this endeavor.

We envision a community of optimism, inclusion, and freedom from violence, in which poverty is eradicated and everyone lives in dignity and security”

Carlos Redmond

At the heart of CAVF's mission lies a vision of optimism, inclusion, and freedom from violence, where poverty is eradicated, and everyone can live in dignity and security. By focusing on key areas such as health and wellness, job creation, food security, and community growth, CAVF aims to effect transformative change, fostering a thriving and empowered community.

Through strategic partnerships and collaborative efforts, CAVF endeavors to bridge the gaps in existing services and provide comprehensive support to those in need. By leveraging the expertise of dedicated professionals, CAVF will offer specialized programs tailored to the unique challenges faced by veterans, seniors, youth, and individuals reentering society after incarceration.

With a strong online presence, CAVF connects with the community through its website (www.chicagoareaveteransforum.com) and actively engages on social media platforms such as Facebook (Chicago Area Veterans Forum) and Instagram (Redmond Carlos). By utilizing these channels, CAVF aims to foster open dialogue, share success stories, and raise awareness about the pressing issues faced by our communities.

The core values of CAVF revolve around honor, compassion, and heartwarming support. Through these guiding principles, the organization strives to create a sense of belonging, resilience, and empowerment within the community. CAVF is committed to providing a safe and nurturing environment where individuals can access the resources they need to thrive.

Carlos Redmond, the driving force behind CAVF, states, "We envision a community of optimism, inclusion, and freedom from violence, in which poverty is eradicated and everyone lives in dignity and security." This heartfelt commitment drives CAVF's tireless efforts to strengthen communities and effect positive change.
