annual auction that took place last month in Sao Paolo.

The event was a star-studded affair where the hosts of the night, Neymar Jr. and his family, received around 900 guests including athletes, celebrities, influencers, and entrepreneurs. Collectively, this group, which included Romacorp., Inc. leaders, came together to make a substantial impact through the work of this noteworthy organization.

Mohaimina Haque, Esq., the Interim CEO of Romacorp., Inc., commented, "We are honored to support the remarkable Instituto Projeto Neymar Jr. and its tireless efforts to uplift youth in need. The work of this organization clearly fits within the Tony Roma's Foundation's giving priorities, and it is wonderful to witness the impact that can be made when so many generous leaders come together to rally around a cause."

As the Foundation grows, the goal of the Foundation is to support the communities where Romacorp., Inc's customers, team members and franchisees live as the company seeks to connect with each of them in ways far beyond the world-famous ribs and menu items.
