WELLINGTON, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, August 17, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Michael Napoleone, Vice Mayor of the Village of Wellington, officially announced his candidacy for Wellington Mayor. On Tuesday, August 2nd, Michael filed paperwork to become an official candidate for Mayor. The election will be held on March 19th, 2024.

"I'm running for Mayor to continue serving the community I love. Wellington is on the right track and we must make sure we continue to address resident priorities and concerns. During my time on the Council, I have made public safety a priority, voted to keep taxes low, and supported long-term investment in our parks, public schools, and roadways.

Wellington is a great hometown and we need to continue to focus on what we do well - and then keep doing it better - so that future generations will want to call Wellington home," said Michael Napoleone.

As Mayor, Michael Napoleone will continue working to maintain Wellington's unique charm and family-oriented character while ensuring that it remains the premier community in Palm Beach County for years to come. Michael's eight years on the Village Council have proven he is the best candidate for the job. From helping Wellington recover from the economic effects of COVID and keeping the Village running seamlessly during Hurricanes to managing growth and protecting greenspace, Napoleone is the only candidate with real on-the-job experience to keep Wellington a top-rated community.

As Vice Mayor, Michael has been devoted to developing a long-range vision for Wellington that
