

Haunted House in Florida Earns a Starring Role in New Movie 'The Clock'

A Victorian style home in Brooksville is featured in a new indy film "The Clock," which premieres Sunday, Aug. 27. For details, visit <http://theclockmovie.com>.

BROOKSVILLE, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, August 17, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- When Donna Maine Smith bought her house, she thought it would make the perfect location for a movie. On Sunday, Aug. 27, when Rick Danford's horror film "The Clock" premieres, Smith's vision will be a reality. For a preview, visit <http://theclockmovie.com>.

A Victorian style home in Florida is featured in a new indy film "The Clock," which premieres Sunday, Aug. 27.

"I had no idea just how intense filming a movie would be," Smith said. "As the homeowner, there were times it was stressful. There's no way to really describe it until you experience it. It gave me a whole new view of what it takes to make a movie and a profound appreciation for the crew—the real heroes of the industry."

“

I had no idea just how intense filming a movie would be ... There's no way to really describe it until you experience it."

Donna Smith

For more about Smith and her background, visit <https://www.dmaineart.com>.

Danford's new indy flick is about a demonic grandfather clock purchased by a young couple, Mike and Sara, portrayed by Shawn Ray and Aimee Rolfsen. When the couple brings the clock home, strange and frightening things start to happen.

Also starring in "The Clock" are David Siracusa as Father Brown, Alexis Baca as Evelyn, and Krista Grotte Saxon as Meg. Tickets are available at <https://thecinema6.com>.

How did the Smith's 141-year-old Victorian style home end up being featured in a film?

“When a local actress and friend of mine posted to her Facebook page that they were looking for a unique location to shoot an independent horror film, I reached out to her and offered the house,” Smith said. “I knew it would be mayhem—but how could I not offer it?”

It should be noted that 2,019-square-foot, three-bedroom, two-bathroom—known as “The Weeks House”—is officially listed at HauntedHovel.com.

“The building is a family home built in the early part of the 1900s,” the website states. “The story goes that if you pass by late at night when the building is empty, you would see a candle passing by the windows on the second floor. Doors being slammed and whispers are also very common.”

Tickets for “The Clock” are available at <https://thecinema6.com>. The theater is located at 9510 US-19 in Port Richey, Florida, 34668.

“I saw snippets of the storyline—so, even I couldn't tell you any details beyond what they've already released,” said Smith. “I'm eager to see my home in the movie—something I know will be a surreal experience—and I'm looking forward to seeing the actual story in its entirety.”

ABOUT: Rick Danford's indie horror film “The Clock” premieres Sunday, Aug. 27, at the Cinema 6 in Port Richey. For details about the cast and the movie, please visit <http://theclockmovie.com>.

Jim Lamb
JSL Stories
+1 727-505-8720
email us here

---

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/650429352>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2023 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.