

M2bio Sciences Announces Launch of Exclusive MMA Organization

CAPE TOWN, WESTERN CAPE, SOUTH AFRICA, August 17, 2023
/EINPresswire.com/ -- Institute of Biomedical Research Corp. (OTC PINK: MRES) ("Institute of Biomedical Research" or the "Company"), a pioneering force in nutraceutical biotechnology specializing in alternative plant-based cannabinoids, medical psilocybin, and cutting-edge mental health therapeutic research powered by artificial intelligence, takes immense pride in presenting its latest development:

M2Bio Sciences is delighted to introduce the debut of its Mixed Martial Arts Organization: "M2 MMA". Encompassing promotions across the UAE, Thailand, and South Africa, M2

MMA, guided by M2Bio Sciences' prominence in drug discovery and mental health, will now channel that expertise into the realm of combat sports. Underpinning this endeavor is M2Bio Sciences' steadfast commitment to the health and wellness of athletes, as it endeavors to extend compassionate, dignified, and respectful treatment to the fighters. By harmonizing the domains of MMA, physical fitness, and healthcare, we are ushering groundbreaking fitness science into the realm of athlete care, explicitly addressing inflammatory conditions and cerebral injuries, including Chronic Traumatic Encephalopathy (CTE).

Jeff Robinson, CEO of M2Bio Sciences, expressed his exhilaration, stating, "It is with immense enthusiasm that we announce the initiation of this exclusive venture, which simultaneously extends the global footprint of M2Bio Science across the regions of UAE, Asia, and Africa. The launch of M2 MMA stands as a testament to our unwavering dedication to harmoniously unite the realms of science and athleticism. This intersection of cutting-edge science and the artistry of combat sports encapsulates our mission to elevate both the physical and mental dimensions of our athletes, charting a new course for their success and health."

In conjunction with esteemed partners, M2 MMA is poised to provide the MMA community with unparalleled proficiency, infusing its collective experience, ardor, and commitment to delivering nothing short of excellence. Through this collaborative initiative, we are on the cusp of transforming the paradigms underpinning athlete care within the fight industry.
