If you're looking to enhance your health, seek an exciting challenge, or master self-defense techniques, then Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu is the perfect martial art.”

Daniel Tavares, Jiu-Jitsu World Champion

Facility Highlights:

A sprawling 4,200 square-foot space

Two dedicated mat training areas

State-of-the-art workout room

A recovery room for relaxation and post-training

Men's and Women's separate changing rooms

Immaculate shower facilities

The brand-new academy, available online at www.dtbjj.com, is led by the legendary Daniel Tavares, a 4th-degree black belt. Tavares competes in the Masters 3 (under 45) division as a lightweight. He boasts an impressive array of accolades, including the 2018 Masters World Championship, the Pan American No Gi championships, and most recently, a triumphant first-place finish in the black belt division of the New York Open on July 29. Next up, he's set to take the stage at the IBJJF Masters World Championship in Las Vegas on Sept. 1.

Tavares's passion for Brazilian jiu-jitsu shines through. "If you're looking to enhance your health, seek an exciting challenge, or master self-defense techniques, then Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu is the perfect martial art," he said. He fervently advocates the art form, especially for children, emphasizing its capacity to bolster confidence, instill discipline, teach invaluable life lessons, and equip them to stand up against bullying.
