

National Neonatal Staffing Services Provides Locum Tenens Staff to RMC Anniston

Relationship Ensures Experienced NICU Nursing Staff on a Flexible Basis

BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA, USA, August 22, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ --

National Neonatal Staffing Services (NNS) has signed a contract with RMC Health System (RMC Anniston) to provide experienced neonatal nurse practitioners (NNP) to the hospital as neonatal intensive care unit (NICU) staffing needs arise. RMC Anniston delivers advanced medical care to multiple medical specialties, including maternity and neonatal care.

RMC Anniston, Alabama

According to RMC Anniston, “Appropriate staffing is required to deliver safe and effective care to newborns and their families. NNS has the experience in the industry that meets our needs. Locum Tenens neonatal nurse practitioners improve patient outcomes by providing quality care, flexibility and immediate turnaround. Our doctors and staff appreciate that NNS is nurse practitioner-owned and operated. We find the NNPs they provide are exceptionally high-quality professionals that fit seamlessly into our environment.”

Kathy Lockett, of NNS said, “Taking care of infants and their families is our number one priority. Our experience in the industry ensures that every assignment is a good fit for both our staff and RMC Anniston. The patients at RMC Anniston deserve reliable, experienced neonatal nurse practitioners that are committed to providing outstanding care. Our sincere commitment to RMC Anniston is to create a lasting relationship that provides financial flexibility and offers an impeccable integration with the organization’s employees.”
