LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, August 18, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- In partnership with U.S. Bank, KJLH 102.3 FM, L.A. County Supervisor Holly J. Mitchell, Supervisorial District 2, and L.A. City Councilwoman Heather Hutt, Council District 10, the Black Business Association is excited to host a celebration of achievement, resilience, and community collaboration is set to take place on Saturday, August 19, 2023, as the city of Los Angeles comes together to mark the annual Black Business Day. This special event, taking place outside Harold & Belle's restaurant, located at 2920 W Jefferson Blvd, will shine a spotlight on the remarkable contributions of Black-owned businesses and provide a platform for empowerment, networking, and business growth. Black Business Day, first recognized 37 years ago by Mayor Tom Bradley, is an annual celebration that coincides with National Black Business Month. The event serves as a tribute to the achievements of Black entrepreneurs and business leaders while offering attendees valuable resources, networking opportunities, and a day filled with engaging activities. Organized by the Black Business Association (BBA) and its president & CEO, Sarah R. Harris, this event thrives on community collaboration. The BBA has joined forces with local municipalities, corporate partners, community leaders, local businesses, and the media to create a day that underscores unity and progress.
