

Vince Couch, a High School Teacher, Releases a Viral Video (16 concurrent screens takes one through an amazing journey)

As Mr. Couch explains "the video is somewhat an overwhelming experience as you are presented 16 screens at a time, with each one depicting some aspect of life"

HOUSTON, TEXAS, USA, August 18, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Mr. C. Vince Couch, a high school teacher from Houston Texas, recently published a very unique video on YouTube with the title "MOLBOAAD – An 8 hour mind blowing journey in 30 minutes" (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=eR9Obia05DE&t=10s>). It is loosely related to a book he wrote, but not yet published, called 'Meaning of Life Based on All Available Data.' As Mr. Couch explains "the video is somewhat an overwhelming experience as the viewer is presented 16 screens at a time, with each one depicting some aspect of life. A narrative is provided as the sound of only 1 of the 16 videos is played at a time. I am telling part of my MOLBOAAD story through snippets of many other existing YouTube videos." Mr. Couch is a physicist, mathematician and pianist and teaches high school physics at a college prep. school in Houston Texas. "This is the first video I created that my wife could identify with. She is a classical pianist. She said that the video was "ingenious" and a "work of art." After that, I said to myself, even if nobody watches this video, I am happy I made it. I chose the videos to be very visual, so that the viewer can absorb the presented information just by "seeing" the video. The topics are wide ranging (philosophy, the human experience (happy, sad, good, evil, ...), human psychology, spirituality, cosmology, physics, bioengineering, AI, music, and many others). Additionally, in the background is some of the greatest and most powerful music ever composed. And there are a few surprises, including the end which is a tear-jerker for many (including me). I hope that people can hang in there for all 40 minutes to see the end. Several people have told me that they have watched the video several times. Since there are 16 things going on at the same time, it provides a great escape for about 40 minutes. I provide in the description the YouTube videos I used and I receive no compensation for the YouTube videos I create. I present this to share what I have discovered, in part, about the meaning of it all."
