exceptional achievements in design, planning, and development throughout the Southeastern United States, the Aurora Awards attract project submissions from first-class professionals in the field.

Evans Construction & Design's award-winning project, named Hamptons Style Family Retreat in Florida, showcases the firm's dedication to delivering captivating and functional design solutions. The home's interior has been thoughtfully curated to blend the client's personalities with timeless finishes to result in a modern

"We are extremely proud to be recognized with the Silver Award for Best Interior Design at the Aurora Awards," said Lori Evans, Co-Founder and Interior Designer of Evans Construction & Design. "This achievement is an honor and true testament to the hard work and dedication we give to each and every project. It's our mission to keep delivering exceptional design experiences for our clients."

Lori describes the Hamptons style family retreat in Florida as, "a true demonstration of timeless interior design and the power it holds to create a sophisticated home. The goal was to create a "Hamptons-inspired" family home that would also grow with them for many years. We added lots of fun elements to keep guests guessing around each corner. From a huge world mural in the playroom to playful hand printed wallpaper in the pool bath, to a dark and rich navy powder bath, there is an element of surprise throughout."

Evans Construction & Design have received many awards in the past and specializes in remodeling, design, commercial and residential building.

"We make a point of staying on top of all the current design trends which we then translate and customize according to our customers' needs and lifestyle," adds Lori. "But creating timeless homes that stand the test of time is our greatest skill of all."
