

iLeasePro Completes SOC 1 Type 1 Certification, Demonstrating Commitment to Data Security and Compliance

iLeasePro completes SOC 1 Type 1 certification attesting to its high standards in data security, internal controls, and compliance.

BEVERLY, MASSACHUSETTS, UNITED STATES, August 22, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- iLeasePro, a premier ASC 842 lease accounting and management solution provider for mid-size and small companies, proudly announces its achievement of the SOC 1 Type 1 certification. Endorsed by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), this certification attests to iLeasePro's high standards in data security, internal controls, and compliance.

iLeasePro ASC 842 Lease Accounting Solution

The SOC 1 Type 1 certification evaluates the design and implementation of a company's controls at a specific point in time. iLeasePro's successful certification, after a rigorous evaluation of its control environment and IT controls, emphasizes its commitment to client data security within the lease management sector.

Achieving the SOC 1 Type 1 certification highlights our dedication to data security. It stands as a testament to our robust internal controls and our pledge to protect our clients' lease data.”

iLeasePro*

John Meedzan, CEO of iLeasePro, remarked, "Achieving the SOC 1 Type 1 certification highlights our dedication to data security. It stands as a testament to our robust internal controls and our pledge to protect our clients' lease data."

This accomplishment reinforces iLeasePro as a trusted name in lease accounting, guaranteeing clients the protection of their sensitive lease data while adhering to top industry standards. iLeasePro is also on track for the SOC 1 Type 2 certification, further solidifying its dedication to top-tier data security standards.
