

BERKELEY HUMANE JOINS GREATER GOOD CHARITIES IN PARTNERSHIP WITH AMERIFLIGHT TO TRANSPORT MORE THAN 40 MAUI SHELTER PETS

Emergency Flight is Part of Larger Effort to Help Make Room for Influx of Pets at Maui Humane Society Due to Wildfires

BERKELEY, CA, USA, August 18, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- WHO & WHAT: In the wake of the Maui wildfires, Berkeley Humane joins Greater Good Charities in partnership with Ameriflight to transport more than 40 Maui shelter dogs (33) and cats (11) to the Bay Area to find forever homes. This emergency flight is part of a larger effort, led by Greater Good Charities, that delivered humanitarian supplies to the people of Maui and airlifted more than 130 shelter dogs and cats off the island to new homes.

- Sending shelter: Maui Humane Society
- Receiving shelters: Berkeley Humane, Marin Humane, Animal Rescue Foundation, East Bay SPCA, Fremont Animal Services (Tri-City Animal Shelter) and Friends of the Alameda Animal Shelter (FAAS)

Greater Good Charities is working with veterinarians on the ground in Maui to ensure the safety and health of the shelter pets boarding the flight. Once they've arrived at the receiving shelters, all the pets will be evaluated and receive any follow-up medical care needed before being put up for adoption.

WHY: This transport is part of Greater Good Charities' plan to provide immediate support and aid in the island's long-term recovery. This emergency airlift will make room for the expected influx of injured and displaced pets that are arriving at Maui Humane Society because of the wildfires. Only shelter pets that were at Maui Humane Society prior to the wildfires will be transported to the Bay Area.
